Newsletter #8

September, 1983

WELCOME

IBRO welcomes new members Tracy Callis, Karel DeVries, Tom Leonard and Carl Schnipper. Their addresses and description of their boxing interests appear elsewhere in this newsletter.

NEW ADDRESS

Reg Noble has become our first Texas member. His address is now:
P.O. Box 3666, Conroe, Texas 77305.

DID YOU KNOW

That Primo Carnera, in his 6th year of professional boxing, was 6 inches taller, a 6-5 favorite at 6'o'clock, and 60 pounds heavier than Jack Sharkey. Carnera scored his 60th career knockout in the 6th round of the 6th bout of the evening in the 6th month of 1933 when he won the heavyweight title from Sharkey. (contributed by Julius Weiner)

IBRO MEETING

Plans are being made for a meeting of IBRO members. Included on the agenda would be a discussion of goals and direction for the organization and possible joint projects. It is tentatively being scheduled for April, 1984 at an Eastern location. Let's hear your thoughts on this.

BIOGRAPHICAL DICTIONARY

Several IBRO members are now working on biographical essays for the Biographical Dictionary of American Sport. This four-volume work is scheduled for publication by the Greenwood Press in 1986. Prof. David L. Porter, William Penn College, Oskaloosa, Iowa 52577 is the editor. He still needs authors for essays on Paul Berlenbach, Tony Canzoneri, Dixie Kid, Johnny Dundee, Billy Papke, Willie Pep, Tommy Ryan, John Henry Lewis, and Sammy Mandell. If you are interested in contributing to this effort, please contact Prof. Porter at the above address.

John Robertson, 17 Fourth Avenue, Cambridge, Ontario, Canada N1S 2C9 is one of the IBRO members currently working on this project. He is looking to obtain some personal data on several boxers (i.e. names and occupations of boxer's parents, boxer's spouse's name, wedding date, names of children, etc.). Boxers he is working on include Max Baer, James J. Braddock, George Foreman, Marvin Hart, Jack Sharkey and Leon Spinks.

John Grasso, Box 84, Guilford, NY 13780 is also working on this project and also could use help in obtaining personal data for Jack Britton, Billy Conn, Jack Dillon, Harry Greb, Pete Herman, Doc Kearns, Johnny Kilbane, Kid McCoy, Kid Williams and Tony Zole.

Any information would be greatly appreciated—especially an address to contact any of the above boxers or their families directly.

He has been a professional boxing writer since 1920. Assistant Editor of 'Boxing' 1929-1939. Editor of 'Boxing News' 1940/41 and again 1947-1956. Author of 12 books on boxers and boxing; ghosted two books and edited and revised two outstanding books. Regular reviser of British edition of Pictorial History of Boxing. Syndicated 40 boxing stories (2,000 words each) from 1954 to 1983. Founder Member of Authentic Records Incorp. Steward Member of British Boxing Board of Control; Chairman B.B.B. of C. Boxers' Benevolent Fund; only newspaper man to be made Hon. Member of the famous National Sporting Club. Active amateur boxer 1918 to 1920, but found it was less painful to write about it.

Interested in collating accurate records of all professional boxers, in particular British boxers especially those who have fought in American rings.

"The Boxing Rambler" - Johnny Shevalla

Hank Kaplan, historian, Florida promoter, colleague, friend and an IBRO'er corresponds with this tourist. Hank's love for our boxing "dodge" stands out in every note he writes. Kaplan, chock full of info, tells us Tom Heeney visited Hank at his home. Always loves seeing Tom. "Heeney, now 84, is in good shape only somewhat forgetful, expectedly so, considering the tough battles he was in."

Al "Bummy" Davis - Hank Kaplan notes Davis was killed in a bar - stick-up. Sports historian James Bus wrote, "Recalling the date around November 20, 1945, Al Davis was killed (shot) in a tavern. Actually he was in a bar/tavern operated by a friend of his, when two hoods came in and held up the place. Bummy, being a boxer, was ready to take the two guys on with his bare fists. As you know, fists can't match bullets. As I recall, Davis was shot a couple of times inside the bar. But that didn't stop him. Al managed to make it outside on the sidewalk and was shot a couple more times and he actually died out on the sidewalk, as I recall."

Don Cockell - Gilbert Allnut, secretary for the Croydon Ex-Boxers Association, London, England, sent us a copy of his April, 1983 most interesting newsletter. Don Cockell is fondly remembered with admiration. (ed. note - Cockell passed away in London on July 17, 1983 after a long bout with cancer). The Croydon Ex-Boxers Association has been in touch with the Cockell family and many sources are getting together to help financially. Write to them at 25 Melrose Avenue, London SW 16, England. Some of Cockell's great bouts:

Feb. 27, 1951 - Lloyd Marshall, London..... KO 1
July 30, 1954 - Harry Matthews, Seattle KO 8
May 16, 1955 - Rocky Marciano, San Francisco KO by 9 (heavyweight title)

Hyatt Sports Directory - Request a copy - Hyatt Hotels 3424 N. 90th St., Omaha, Nebraska 68134

Larry Holmes - Lucien Rodriguez WBC heavyweight championship bout - Scranton, Pa.
Art Rust, Jr. (WABC radio N.Y. sports talk show host - "boxing's historic mind")
"Total farce." "Holmes fine heavyweight in any era."
Howard Cosell (ABC radio sports) - "That mess in Scranton."

Remembering Jack Cuddy - (Jack Cuddy died 9-2-75)

Mr. Cuddy covered virtually every major fight for the United Press and U.P.I. from 1932 until his retirement in 1965. Cuddy started his extraordinarily fine newspaper career with the Milwaukee Journal. Jack had also worked for the Chicago Daily News, the Miami Daily News and the New Orleans Item-Tribune. He joined U.P. as night manager in Atlanta in 1926. Cuddy then transferred to the New York bureau in 1927. The stories he covered included Charles A. Lindbergh's solo flight over the Atlantic. Cuddy then transferred to the sports department of U.P./U.P.I. in 1932. Sports fans and boxing people will never forget the wonderful by-line by the name of Jack Cuddy.

Quotes worth re-quoting:

"I have always felt that boxing people have the greatest hearts." - Frankie Ryff
"The game fish up-stream" - Grantland Rice
"Achieve with honor" - Hollywood (Calif.) High School class motto
"Joe Louis fought for the title - for the honor - when it was an honor"

Smooth sailing from your host and guest -
Johnny Shevalla

Some records, from Laurence Fielding:

Word has been received from Julius Weiner that Eddie Leonard, a Baltimore boxer of the 1920's, died May 9, 1983 at George Washington Hospital in Washington. Here is his record, or most of it, and also most of the fights of Tommy Lowe of Washington, compiled with the help of information contained in Bill Schutte's newspaper clippings and reports in the Washington Star and Post. Any additional fights or dates which can be supplied by the members will certainly be appreciated.

Some identity problems:

In the record of Johnny Haystack (1928 Everlast, page 146), in his 1927 record, the name "Caveman" Fisher appears, in fights at Syracuse. Also in Osk Till's record, 1929 Everlast page 207. Was this man the same as Young Fisher, who beat Jack Delaney, Mike O'Dowd, and Panama Joe Gans ?

In the record of Andy Tucker (1926 Everlast, page 223) the name Jimmy Burns appears, as losing to Tucker in 1923. Also in the record of Eddie Le Roy (1932 Everlast, page 287), Jimmy Burns losing to him in 1929. A Jimmy Burns appeared in Norfolk, Va. in 1931. The name also appears in the records of Mickey Doyle, George Goldberg, and Mickey Blair. Were these the same as the Jimmy Burns (real name James V. De Fago) whose record appears in the 1943 Ring Record Book, page 83-84 ?

In the record of Happy Atherton (1941 RRB, page 53, and 1930 Andrews, page 295), he boxed a draw with a Frankie Murray on Apr. 5, 1929 at San Francisco. The name Frankie Murray also appears in the records of champions Pancho Villa (1924), Joe Lynch (1923), Newsboy Brown (1924), and Izzy Schwartz (1925). Were these the same Frankie Murray as the one whose record is in the 1922 Everlast, page 268 ? Also, what was his real name ?

In the record of Benny Levine (1931 Everlast, page 228), he met Al Delmont in 1929 and 1928. In 1927 an Al Delmont was kayoed by Bobby Garcia (1943 RRB, page 193). In 1926 Delmont met Joe Glick and Al Gordon. All of these were Newark fights. Going further back, to 1924 and 1923, this name appears in the records of Jack McFarland and Sam Mossberg. It appears in the 1920 records of Mickey Brown and Johnny Reisler. An Al Delmont won over Chick Suggs on Nov. 15, 1918 in 8 rounds at Boston. Can it be, that these Al Delmonts are the same as the one whose record (only up through 1913) is in the 1941 RRB, page 128, or were there two or three different fighters ?

In the 1924 record of Sammy Mandell (1982 RRB, page 769) the name Mickey O'Dowd appears. Also in the 1923 record of Ernie Goozeman (1943 RRB, page 216). Is this Mickey O'Dowd the same as Midget Mike O'Dowd who campaigned in the later 1920's and beat Johnny Datto and Nationalista, and drew with Santiago Zorilla ?

In the 1929 record of Tony Herrera (1941 RRB, page 182), he knocked out a man named Ray Rychell on July 1. But in Herrera's record in the 1931 Andrews, page 181, the name is given as Ray Mitchell. So, which is right, Mitchell or Rychell ? It could have been either, as there were fighters boxing under those two names at that time.

Record book discrepancies:

BOXING RECORD BOOKS

The Annual Journal featured a comprehensive list of boxing record books published since 1900 compiled by Luckett Davis. David Bloch offers a substantial list of additions to it. He writes:

"Luckett Davis did a fantastic job in listing the record books since 1900. He certainly presented a number of books that were unknown to me, proving that 'two heads are always better than one'. In any case, I would like to add my two cents worth by making a few possible corrections and a number of interesting additions."

Possible Corrections:

American Boxing Guide by Graham Houston: I also have an 1980 edition

T.S. Andrews Boxing Record: Also published in 1937

Annuario Internazionale: I have a 1957 edition. This MAY be in lieu of the 1959 edition
Luckett mentions.

Box Brevier: I also have a 1948 edition

Continental Boxing Guide: I have a 1958 edition. I THINK this may be the same as Luckett's 1957 edition.

King Korn Record Book: One also published in 1983

Ring, Anne de: I also have issues for 1955 and 1956

Ring Digest: I also have a 1951 issue

Small Glove News: There was also an issue for 1977. I do not believe there was one issued in 1980.

Sporting Life Records to October 1909, published in London: I think it should be to October, 1910.

Truth New Zealand Boxing Year Book: I also have a 1959 edition.

Additional Record Books that have been published, most of which I have:

Australian Ring Digest: 1952, 53, 55, 56, 57

Internationale Box-Rekorde to May 1931 by Fred Petermann (German)

L'Almanach Du Ring 1945 by Georges Pagnoud (French)

Guia Lagunera De Box, Mexico 1954

All Star Sports Record 1919 by Al Spink - mostly boxing records

Nordic Record Book by Roger Soderberg: 1969, 70, 71, 72, 73

Pacific Northwest Record Book, Bruce Siebol: 1979-82

Boxe, by L'Echo Des Sports, Pierre Bardel: 1942, 1943

Fight Parade by Al Robinson: 1949

There was also a Welsh Record Book published. I will get the name of that from a friend who has one."

Gilbert Odd adds the following information concerning the Boxing News Annual:

"With George Whiting, a renowned British boxing writer, now deceased unfortunately, we produced The Boxers Annual which was dated 1944/5. This did not contain individual boxers records. In 1945 this idea was sold to the proprietors of Boxing News who published a copy dated for that year. As a result I was invited to join the staff and in 1946 produced a B.N. Annual which contained records. In 1947 I became editor of Boxing News and regularly produced an Annual which has carried on until today."

He also makes these additions to the above list: "A European Boxing Guide was published by Charlie Parish dated 1958/9. Also the Annuaire Du Ring from 1945 to 1959 was published by Georges Denis in Paris and edited by him."

RON ROUSELLE

John Robertson forwards the following on the record of Canadian heavyweight, Ron Rouselle as appeared in the 1981 Ring Record Book. Rouselle's record was listed as 6-6 and his first bout in 1977 as KO by 1 with opponent unknown.

In researching the bout in the Toronto Globe and Mail for March 8, 1977, Robertson found that the bout occurred on March 7, 1977 at the North York Centennial Centre and was a preliminary to the George Chuvalo-Bob "Pretty Boy" Felstein bout for the Canadian heavyweight title which Chuvalo won by a ninth-round knockout. "In another preliminary, Ron Rouselle of Toronto knocked down Dave Zguda of Buffalo three times in the first minute of the fight for the victory."

Thus Rouselle's entry for that bout should read:
March 7, 1977 - Dave Zguda, Toronto.....KO 1

MILWAUKEE NEWSPAPERS

Bill Schutte, Rt. 3, Whitewater, WI 53190, has obtained 410 bound volumes of Milwaukee newspapers and has 14,000 sports sections from 1905-40 for sale or trade. Papers available are Milwaukee Evening Wisconsin 1905-18, Milwaukee Free Press 1905-18 and Milwaukee Sentinel 1927-40. Both the Free Press and the Sentinel covered boxing extremely well. Send him a self-addressed stamped envelope for a more detailed list.

ENGAGED IN ARMY BOUTS & EXHIBITIONS IN PANAMA

TONY CANZONERI

A question was raised about a match between Tony Canzoneri and Vincent DiLeo. They met at the Olympia Athletic Club in Manhattan, November 22, 1927 on a benefit card of 4-round bouts. Canzoneri technically knocked out DiLeo in the first round. The New York Times of November 23rd reported all of the results and treated them as official bouts, not as exhibitions. Among the other well-known fighters who appeared on the card were George Godfrey, Bruce Flowers, George Courtney, Izzy Schwartz, Phil McGraw and Canada Lee. (contributed by Lockett Davis).

Tommy Lowe is said to have been 22 late in 1906, so apparently was born about 1884. One of his managers was Dick Kain.

Undated fights:

It has been claimed that Lowe fought several draws with Andy Cortez, and also won decisions over Cortez, once at New Orleans and once at Savannah. Also that he won and lost, in two 15 round fights with Danny Ferguson, probably in 1915. He is supposed to have lost three fights to Mel Coogan, 12, 15, and 20 rounds in 1917 (according to Coogan's record). He had a 10 round no decision bout with Bruno Lang at Akron, in which Lang was best, probably early in 1915. He is said to have had one or two fights with Bert Keyes at Providence. Also wins over Johnny Marto and Mickey McDonough in 1906. A 6 round no decision bout with Tommy Carey, and several such bouts with Hugh Madole and Battling Terry.

After retiring he became a referee for the Maryland State Athletic Commission and was in a number of business enterprises. He died May 9, 1983 in Washington, D.C.

Eddie Leonard is said to have had 105 fights, of which he lost four, and was never knocked out. There are 57 fights listed here. He probably had a number of fights in Pennsylvania, that are not listed above. The dates given here for his 1925 fights are from newspaper results. The old record books give dates for his 1925 fights, but some of them appear to be wrong.

TRIVIA QUIZ #4 - Answers

(Note - Trivia quiz #4 appeared in IBRO newsletter #4. Due to a variety of circumstances, it was not possible to publish the answers in subsequent newsletters).

1. There have been 34 men who have been recognized as world champion of more than one division. How many can you name?
2. How many of these men won more than two championships?

Alexis Arguello	Feather, Jr. Light, Light
Henry Armstrong	Feather, Light, Welter
Wilfred Benitez	Jr. Welter, Welter, Jr. Middle
Tony Canzoneri	Feather, Light, Jr. Welter
Roberto Duran	Light, Welter, Jr. Middle
Bob Fitzsimmons	Middle, Lt. Heavy, Heavy
Barney Ross	Light, Jr. Welter, Welter

Carmen Basilio	Welter, Middle
Benny Bass	Feather, Jr. Light
Nino Benvenuti	Jr. Middle, Middle
Jimmy Britt	Feather, Light
Lou Brouillard	Welter, Middle
Freddy Castillo	Jr. Fly, Fly
Bobby Chacon	Feather, Jr. Light
Kid Chocolate	Feather, Jr. Light
George Dixon	Bantam, Feather
Johnny Dundee	Feather, Jr. Light
Emile Griffith	Welter, Middle
Fighting Harada	Fly, Bantam
Thomas Hearns	Welter, Jr. Middle
Soo Hwan Hong	Bantam, Jr. Feather
Harry Jeffra	Bantam, Feather
Eder Jofre	Bantam, Feather
Ray Leonard	Welter, Jr. Middle
Terry McGovern	Bantam, Feather
Ruben Olivares	Bantam, Feather
Carlos Ortiz	Light, Jr. Welter
Ray Robinson	Welter, Middle
Raul Rojas	Feather, Jr. Light
Tommy Ryan	Welter, Middle
Sandy Saddler	Feather, Jr. Light
Kuniaki Shibata	Feather, Jr. Light
Dick Tiger	Middle, Lt. Heavy
Mickey Walker	Welter, Middle

3. Which of the three-time champions attempted to gain a fourth championship?

Alexis Arguello lost twice to Aaron Pryor for the junior welterweight title.
Henry Armstrong fought a 10 round draw with Ceferino Garcia for the middleweight title.
Tony Canzoneri fought a 10 round draw and lost a 10 round decision with Bud Taylor for the bantamweight title prior to winning his first championship.

4. Which division has had the most champions who also won titles in other divisions?

There have been 15 featherweight champions who held other titles at some point in their careers. The welterweight class is second with 12 dual champions.

5. In which division has the greatest percentage of its champions also won titles in other classes?

Eight of 29 Junior Lightweight champions also won championships in other classes.

6. Outside of cruiserweights and junior bantamweights, which divisions had the fewest champions who also won titles in other divisions?

Only one heavyweight, Bob Fitzsimmons, has won championships in more than one class. There have also been only one junior flyweight champion, Freddie Castillo, and one junior featherweight champion, Soo Hwan Hong, who have won more than one title.

7. It's well known that Joe Louis had more title defenses - 25 - than any other heavyweight champion, but he averaged only 2.14 title defenses per year. What heavyweight champion had the highest average of title defenses per year?

Ezzard Charles won recognition as champion on June 22, 1949 when he defeated Jersey Joe Walcott for Joe Louis' vacant title. He reigned until his defeat by Walcott on July 18, 1951. In the two years and 27 days in which he held the title he defended it 9 times, including his unsuccessful defense against Walcott. This average of 4.35 title defenses per year is unsurpassed by any other champion. (Unless you count the 73 day reign of Ken Norton - He lost in his only defense but he averaged one defense every 73 days or 5.00 per year).

8. Which heavyweight champion had the lowest average of title defenses per year?

The least active was Jim Corbett who held the title 4 1/2 years and lost it in only his second defense. His average is 0.44. Close behind are Bob Fitzsimmons at 0.45 (one defense in 2 years and 2 months), Jess Willard at 0.47 (two defenses in 4 years and 3 months) and Jim Braddock at 0.49 (one defense in two years).

9. There have been six*heavyweight champions to hold the title less than one year. How many can you name?

Ken Norton	2 months, 12 days
John Tate	5 months, 12 days
Leon Spinks	7 months, 1 day
Marvin Hart	7 months, 21 days
Primo Carnera	11 months, 16 days
Ingemar Johansson	11 months, 26 days
*Michael Dokes	9 months, 14 days has increased this list to seven.

10. Joe Louis and Muhammad Ali held the heavyweight championship for the most years. Which heavyweight champions are third, fourth and fifth on this list?

Jack Dempsey with 7.22 years, Jack Johnson with 6.28 years and Jim Jeffries with 5.93 years are next on the list of heavyweight championship reigns. Larry Holmes, if he is still champion, will pass Jeffries on May 14, 1984. Ironically, both Holmes and Jeffries won their titles on June 9th.

ADDITIONS, CORRECTIONS & COMMENTS (from Bob Soderman)

1. In late 1928 (December), Ray Miller knocked out Tommy Grogan at Detroit. Movies of this fight were shown on January 19, 1929 (and for some days thereafter) at a theater in Grand Rapids, Michigan. This then, is a film that could be added to the list of films on record. I ran across this while doing research on Otto von Porat's Jan. 1929 fight in Grand Rapids against Battling Levinsky. I had access to microfilm of the Grand Rapids Press for January-February 1929.
2. Ran across some data on bantam champ Panama Al Brown, including a 1931 fight not previously shown in Brown's record: Sept. 21, 1931 - Ginger Jones, Mountain Ash, Wales.....KO 9.
Also, Brown's Mar. 31, 1931 opponent's first name is Douglas Parker and his Apr. 13, 1931 bout vs. Jack Garland (W 15 for Brown) took place in Manchester, England - not London. I got this data out of a 1932 edition of the Manchester Sporting Chronicle, which contained a chronological listing of boxing results from around the world
3. Additions to record of Johnny Wilson (bouts not listed in 1982 Ring, but in 1927 Everlast):
Apr. 30, 1926 - Tony Clatin, Worcester.....W 8
June 10, 1926 - Rocky Marion, Richmond, Va...KO 5
Sept. 24, 1926 - Chief Halbran, Stamford.....KO 4
4. Add one fight to record of Bushy Graham:
July 8, 1921 - Bobby Micheals (sic), New York...KO by 4
5. Previously un-recorded fights for Johnny Dundee, Rocky Kansas and Bud Taylor - all in 1922 and obtained from study of Chicago Tribune microfilms for that year:
Dec. 14, 1922 - Johnny Dundee beat Gene Delmont, New York W 12
Dec. 15, 1922 - Rocky Kansas beat Johnny Donnelly, Erie, Pa. W 8
Dec. 22, 1922 - Pal Moore beat Bud Taylor, Chicago.... W 10
6. Unrecorded fights for two more champions:
Oct. 9, 1922 - Charlie O'Connell beat Jimmy Goodrich, Buffalo....W 10
Oct. 13, 1922 - Young Sharkey stopped Benny Bass, Phila.....KO 1
7. Additional bout for Jock Malone not listed in his record in 1982 Ring Record Book: He fought the 6 round main event in Chicago, on Friday, June 27, 1930, winning a close decision from Benny "Kid" Stanley, Kansas City Negro. This is the same Benny Stanley that he beat in 10 rounds at Davenport on June 20, 1928. It is more than likely that Malone fought other bouts in 1930 (besides the March 17 vs. Gorilla Jones). Maybe someone could go thru microfilms of Minneapolis and St. Paul newspapers to track these down.

STATE BOXING COMMISSION OFFICIAL REPORTS

IBRO has recently made a request to each state boxing commission for copies of their official reports of bouts held under their jurisdiction. The first to reply was Maine. A copy appears on the following pages.

THANKS

Thanks to David Bloch, Lockett Davis, Laurence Fielding, Herb Goldman, Chris LaForce, Gilbert Odd, John Robertson, Bill Schutte, Johnny Shevalla, Bob Soderman, Julius Weiner, Bob Yalen and the Maine Boxing Commission for the contributions to this newsletter.

CELEBRITY BOXERS

In a previous newsletter, Johnny Shevalla wrote about Tonto's (Jay Silverheels) experiences as a professional boxer. Julius Weiner has put together the following list of people with boxing experience who became famous in other disciplines.

Additional information on specific bouts engaged in by any of these people would be appreciated.

Politics - Presidents George Washington, Theodore Roosevelt, Dwight Eisenhower and Gerald Ford; Governor George Wallace, Congressmen Ed Beard, John Tunney and William Morrissey; Senator James Proxmire.

Show Business - Frank Sinatra, Dean Martin, Victor McLaglen, Robert Mitchum, Errol Flynn, Victor Mature, James Cagney, George Raft (pro record 10-7, also batboy for the N.Y. Highlanders), Tony Danza, Robert Conrad, Ryan O'Neal, Kevin O'Neal, their father Charles (Blackie) O'Neal, Walter Matthau, Kris Kristofferson, cowboy star Bob Steele, Oliver Reed, Buster Crabbe, Max Baer, Jr., silent movie star George O'Brien, Bob Hope, Milton Berle, Jimmy Durante, Chico Marx, Redd Foxx.

Other fields - Poet Lord Byron, artist Frederick Remington, financier Bernard Baruch, Judge John Sirica, President of Israel Chaim Herzog, General Jimmy Doolittle, football coach Knute Rockne, and William Mayo, owner of the Mayo Clinic in Rochester, Minn.

Needless to say, most of the boxing done by these men was in the amateur category although some of them did box professionally and one of them did go the distance in a world's heavyweight championship bout. (Hint - he went the distance with Jack Johnson and 26 years later won an Academy Award as Best Actor for his starring role in "The Informer").

CORNERMEN

Chris LaForce adds the following information to the list of cornermen that appeared in IBRO newsletter #6.

Gene Tunney - Frank "Doc" Bagley, Jimmy Bronson, Lew Fink, Lou Brix, Whitey Bimstein.

Max Schmeling - Joe Jacobs, Max Machon, Edward "Doc" Casey.

Max Baer - Ancil Hoffman, Whitey Bimstein.

Ezzard Charles - Ray Arcel, Jake Mintz.

Larry Holmes - Richie Giachetti, Eddie Futch, Ray Arcel, Freddie Brown.

Rocky Marciano - Charlie Goldman, Freddie Brown.

Joe Jeanette - Dan McKettrich, Tom McArdle.

Harry Wills - Jim Buckley, Paddy Mullins

Luther McCarty - Billy McCarney

DID YOU KNOW

That Joe Gaddi of Newark, NJ won 160 pound, 175 pound and heavyweight titles on the same night in 1916. (contributed by Julius Weiner)

CORRECTIONS

In the article on Joe Baksi in the Annual Journal, it was stated that Max Baer defeated Lou Nova in two bouts. In fact, Nova stopped Baer in the 11th round on June 1, 1939 and on April 4, 1941 Nova stopped Baer in the 8th round.

28

In the record of Matt Adgie which appeared in IBRO newsletter #6, the November 15, 1926 bout with Ricardo Romano in Philadelphia was a 7th round knockout
